Dear Grandma:

Happy Easter! One day, an 84-year-old patient, well dressed and quite dynamic, arrived at the doctor's office. The doctor asked her many questions about her general health and particular problems. She told him that she suffered from severe back pain. He knew that the greatest danger to her was falling and breaking her hip: that is what ruins and shortens the lives of so many elderly people. Several factors greatly increase the risk of an older person falling, and one of them is the condition of their feet. The doctor asked her: "Do you mind if we take off your shoes and socks so I can examine your feet?" The patient resisted and said: "Is that really necessary?" The doctor insisted gently. In the end it turned out that this worthy, impeccably dressed woman, had swollen feet, open toenails, sores between her toes, and calluses on the bottom of her feet. The doctor sent the lady directly to a podiatrist to have her feet cleaned, healed and taken care of. After the patient left, the doctor told his assistant: "We should always examine the feet."

The feet and their problems are easily covered and hidden. We priests are like that lady who went to the doctor. We are very good at faking health and freshness. But we're not good at taking our shoes off. We are too good to keep hiding our problems. Jesus does not want his priests to fall and our ministry to be frustrated. Jesus washes our feet, asks us to show them to Him. He will not let us follow him until we are clean, until there is some purification and some healing. The presbytery of Los Angeles is the very image of diversity: we are young and old, we come from all over the world, we speak many languages and we have experienced paths so different from the priesthood. We also represent a wide range of theological and pastoral points of view ... We priests do not have to think alike. It is the love we have for God and his people that unites us as priests of Jesus Christ. The Archbishop calls us to spiritual renewal. Great changes are needed in our church. But if we do not renew our inner life, what can we offer the people who depend on us? If we do not live deeper and more authentic love lives, how will we recognize solutions when we see them? How will we discern our way forward and how will we have the courage and generosity to make the changes in our church that God wants? As always, priests need the support and prayers of our parishioners. It's hard for me to believe what they sometimes tell me:

- "You priests are the key to building a living church."
- "You flavor the broth!"
- "The presence of priests is what makes people want to be in the parish."

I find it hard to believe in my own ministry. My parishioners know that we are human and that is why they tell me again and again:

- "You are not alone, we, your people, support you and appreciate you very much."

Estimada tía Tota:

A continuación, Felices Pascuas de Resurrección. Cierta día, una paciente de 84 años, bien vestida y bastante dinámica llegó al consultorio del médico acompañada de su hija. El médico hizo muchas preguntas sobre su salud general y problemas particulares. Ella le dijo que sufría de dolor severo de espalda. A diferencia del resto de los médicos, este le pidió que se sometiera a algunas cirugías lo antes posible. Sabía que el mayor peligro para ella era caer y romperse la cadera: eso es lo que arruina y acorta la vida de tantas personas mayores. Varios factores aumentan considerablemente el riesgo de que una persona mayor se caiga, y uno de ellos es la condición de sus pies. El médico le preguntó: "¿Le importa si le quitamos los zapatos y las medias para que pueda examinarle los pies?". La paciente se resistió y dijo: "¿Es eso realmente necesario?", Insistió suavemente el gerontólogo. Al final resultó que esta mujer digna, e impecablemente vestida tenía los pies hinchados, las uñas de los pies abiertas, llagas entre los dedos de los pies, y callos en la parte inferior de los pies. El médico envió a la dama directamente a un podólogo para que le limpiaran los pies, la curaran y cuidaran bien. Después de que la paciente se fue, el médico le dijo a su asistente: "Siempre deberíamos examinar los pies".

Los pies y sus problemas se cubren y ocultan fácilmente. Los sacerdotes nos parecemos a esa señora que fue al médico. Somos muy buenos para aparentar salud y lozanía. Pero no somos buenos para quitarnos los zapatos. Somos demasiado buenos para guardar nuestros problemas. Jesús no quiere que sus sacerdotes caigan y se frustre nuestro ministerio. Jesús nos lava los pies, nos pide que se los descubramos. No nos dejará seguirlo hasta que quedemos limpios. Hasta que haya algo de purificación y algo de curación. El presbiterio de Los Ángeles es la imagen misma de la diversidad: somos jóvenes y viejos, venimos de todo el mundo, hablamos muchos idiomas y hemos experimentado caminos tan diferentes al sacerdocio. También representamos una amplia gama de puntos de vista teológicos y pastorales... Nosotros los sacerdotes no tenemos que pensar igual. Es el amor que tenemos por Dios y su pueblo lo que nos une como sacerdotes de Jesucristo. El Arzobispo nos llama a la renovación espiritual. Se necesitan grandes cambios en nuestra iglesia. Pero si no renovamos nuestra vida interior, ¿qué podemos ofrecer a las personas que dependen de nosotros? Si no vivimos vidas de amor más profundas y auténticas, ¿cómo reconoceremos las soluciones cuando las veamos? ¿Cómo discerniremos nuestro camino hacia adelante y cómo tendremos el coraje y la generosidad para hacer los cambios en nuestra iglesia que Dios quiere? Como siempre, los sacerdotes necesitamos el apoyo y las oraciones de nuestros feligreses. Me es difícil creer lo que a veces me dicen:

- "Ustedes los sacerdotes son la clave para construir una iglesia viva". - "Ustedes dan sabor al caldo!" Se me hace muy estresante escucharles decir: - "La presencia de los sacerdotes es lo que hace que la gente quiera estar en la parroquia." Me cuesta creer en mi propio ministerio. La gente de mi parroquia sabe que somos humanos y por eso me repiten una y otra vez: - "No está solo. Nosotros, su gente, lo apoyamos y lo apreciamos mucho."

DID YOU KNOW:

"If you see something, say something"

We see this warning in airports and schools, but experts say it's also a great way for parents to think about Internet safety for their children. One of the best ways to protect children using the Internet is to actually engage with them in what they're doing: Play the games they plan, check out their profile pages with them. Discuss online respect and rules for what can and cannot be shared. Regular conversation and monitoring helps keep children safe online. For more information, read the article by Catholic News Service, "Vigilance by parents and their children called key to safe internet use."

"Si ves algo, di algo"

Vemos esta advertencia en aeropuertos y escuelas, pero los expertos dicen que también es una excelente manera para que los padres de familia piensen en la seguridad de Internet para sus hijos. Una de las mejores formas de proteger a los niños que usan Internet es participar realmente en lo que están haciendo: jugar los juegos que planean, revisar junto con ellos sus páginas de perfil. Discuta sobre el respeto en línea y las reglas para lo que puede y no puede ser compartido. La conversación y el monitoreo regulares ayudan a mantener a los niños seguros en línea. Para obtener más información, consulte el artículo de Catholic News Service, "Vigilance by parents and their children called key to safe internet use (Vigilancia de los padres y sus hijos son clave para el uso seguro de Internet).

RESPECT FOR LIFE ACTIVITY:

Please join us May 17, 2019, beginning at 2:30 pm and concluding with Benediction at 3:30 pm for our Pro Life prayer session. Every third Friday of every month we will devote an hour of prayer to Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe for the prevention of the innocent unborn from abortion, euthanasia and embryonic stem cell research. Group prayer in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament is the most powerful prayer we have. Prayer is the key to God's Heart. Come celebrate this devotion with us.

We invite you to our Bereavement Support Group.

Group gatherings are every third Monday of every month in the rectory's conference room. There will be a gathering next week Monday, May 20, at 7pm. For any further information or details, contact
Bernie Maynard.

Baptism in the month of May.

Please note: Confirmation will be held on May 18, 2019. Therefore, there will be no Infant Baptisms on the 3rd Saturday of May.

Hemos hecho algunos cambios y tendremos Bautismo bilingüe el 25 de mayo de 2019. El horario de clases pre-bautismal sigue siendo el mismo.

In solidarity with our suffering brothers and sisters in Sri Lanka, Archbishop Gomez has asked all parishes to consider conducting a non-mandatory special collection during the weekends of May 18-19, 2019. All checks should be made payable to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith – memo: SRI LANKA DISASTER. Donations may be mailed to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 3424 Wilshire Blvd., 3rd Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90010. If anyone wishes to make an online donation, they may do so at www.missionsla.org/donate-today and specify Sri Lanka Disaster in the special instructions box. 100% of the collection will go towards those affected by this horrible disaster. For any questions or concerns, please contact the MISSION OFFICE at (213) 637-7223 or missionoffice@la-archdiocese.org.

En solidaridad con nuestros hermanos y hermanas sufrientes en Sri Lanka, el Arzobispo Gómez ha pedido a todas las parroquias que consideren realizar una colecta especial (no obligatoria) durante el fin de semana del 18 al 19 de mayo de 2019. Favor de mantener a estas comunidades en sus oraciones.
