Thank you for your generosity this Holy Week and Easter. May God multiply your offerings with His blessings.

Dear parishioners:

The feast of Easter is the most important feast of the Church. Therefore we dedicate 50 days to its celebration. The party will last until Pentecost. The first eight days are each like the first one. The news that Jesus has risen continues to reach more and more people: if last Sunday it was the women who received the news, now it is the men who have the wonderful experience of meeting the Risen Jesus. The reason for these encounters with the Risen Jesus is, basically, to confirm them in the faith and in all that they had lived with Jesus. During those years, Jesus had taught them many things. He had told them about the Kingdom and about God, whom Jesus called "dad". Jesus presents himself as a different image of God: zero arrogance and zero vengeance, who does justice differently and is not vindictive. He presents himself as a compassionate and merciful brother for us, who is a son, in turn, of a compassionate and merciful God and Father; full of love and tenderness. Jesus also manifests himself to us in this Gospel and wants to make it very clear for us that God desires happiness and freedom (in fraternity) of all his sons and daughters and that is why he has given us life.

He appears to remind them that he will be alive within us when we have a special and loving treatment for the needy and oppressed.

He reminds them that justice consists in sharing the goods of the earth.

He had eaten with them many times and taught them that it is better to serve and love others than dominate and control them.

He said that the Kingdom of God is a gift, but also a task.

Jesus' appearances do not disturb, do not destroy, do not oppress. Jesus is a bearer of peace, peace for hearts and peace for all. Those who had seen how violence and hatred destroyed the life of Jesus now see how the strength of God is able to create Life and a lasting Peace.

Queridos feligreses:

La fiesta de la Pascua de Resurrección es la más importante de la Iglesia. Por esto les dedicaremos 50 días a su celebración. La fiesta durará hasta Pentecostés. Los ocho primeros días son cada uno, como el primero. La noticia, la gran noticia de que Jesús ha resucitado sigue llegando a más y a más personas: si el domingo pasado eran las mujeres las que recibían la noticia, ahora son los hombres quienes tuvieron la maravillosa experiencia de encontrarse con Jesús Resucitado. La razón de estos encuentros con Jesús Resucitado es, básicamente, para confirmarlos en la fe y en todo lo que habían vivido con Jesús.

Durante aquellos años, Jesús les había enseñado muchas cosas. Les había hablado del Reino y de Dios, a quien Jesús llamaba "papá". Jesús se presenta a sí mismo como imagen de Dios diferente: Cero arrogante y cero vengativo, que hace justicia de manera distinta y no es castigador. Se presenta a sí mismo hermano compasivo y misericordioso, quien es hijo, a su vez, de un Dios Padre compasivo y misericordioso; lleno de amor y ternura.

Jesús se nos manifiesta también a nosotros en este evangelio y quiere dejarnos bien claro que Dios desea la felicidad y la libertad en fraternidad de todos sus hijos e hijas y que para ello nos ha dado la vida.

Se les aparece para recordarles que él seguirá con vivo mientras nosotros tengamos un trato especial y cariñoso para los necesitados y oprimidos. Les recuerda que la justicia consiste en compartir los bienes de la tierra. Había comido con ellos muchas veces y les había enseñado que vale más servir y amar que dominar, poseer y controlar. Les había prometido el Reino pero también les había dicho que el Reino es don y tarea.

Todo eso viene a confirmarlo con sus apariciones. No viene a juzgar, ni mucho menos, a condenar, sino a desear la paz. La presencia de Jesús no inquieta, no destruye, no oprime sino que es portadora de paz, paz para los corazones y paz para todos. Los que habían visto cómo la violencia y el odio destruyeron la vida de Jesús, ven ahora cómo la fuerza de Dios es capaz de crear Vida y una Paz duradera.

Easter Petal Tree

Please take a moment to offer a prayer for all the intentions written on the Easter Petals. This Easter Tree represents important parts of lives and allows us to pray for each other. Special thanks to Zeny and all the ushers and volunteers who made this beautiful tree possible. Thanks to all the people who contributed, a total of $1,276.00 were collected. These funds will go towards new hanging microphones for our choir loft.. Thank you for being part of this improvement.

Holy Week and Easter Gratitude and Evaluation

I am very grateful to each of you who attended these past Holy day celebrations. Many parishioners came together and dedicated their time and talents to prepare, rehearse and assist with the Liturgical Services. They bless us with their dedication to St. Bernard's. To these parishioners who volunteered with the Liturgy Masses/Services Holy Thursday thru Easter, please join me on Wednesday May 1st at 7:00pm in the Friendship hall for an Easter gratitude/evaluation meeting. Thank you for volunteering and assisting as Altar Server, in Choir, Eucharistic Minister, Greeter, Lector or Usher. We need you to please call the parish office to RSVP no later than noon on April 29th.

Estoy muy agradecido a cada uno de ustedes que asistieron a estas pasadas celebraciones del Día Santo. Muchos feligreses se reunieron y dedicaron su tiempo y talento para prepararse, ensayar y ayudar con los Servicios Litúrgicos. Nos bendicen con su dedicación a San Bernardo. A estos feligreses que se ofrecieron como voluntarios para las Misas / Servicios de Liturgia, del Jueves Santo a Semana Santa, por favor, únase a mí el miércoles 1 de mayo a las 7:00 p. M. En el salón de la Amistad para una reunión de gratitud / evaluación de Semana Santa. Gracias por ser voluntario y asistir como Altar Server, en Coro, Ministros de Eucaristía, Ujieres, o Lectores. Necesitamos que llame a la oficina de la parroquia para confirmar su asistencia antes del mediodía del 29 de abril.

Archbishop Gomez has released the following statement:

We are praying for our brothers and sisters who were killed this Easter morning in Sri Lanka. May they know the promise of the Resurrection and may God bring comfort to their families and their loved ones. Only love can conquer evil and violence, so we ask Jesus this morning for the courage to love and we pray for the conversion of every heart that is hardened by hatred. May the Blessed Virgin Mary, who is our mother and the mother of mercy, console those who are suffering and watch over all of us. And may God grant us peace.

In solidarity with our suffering brothers and sisters in Sri Lanka, Archbishop Gomez has asked all parishes to consider conducting a non-mandatory special collection during the weekends of May 18-19, 2019. All checks should be made payable to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith – memo: SRI LANKA DISASTER. Donations may be mailed to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 3424 Wilshire Blvd., 3rd Floor, Los Angeles, CA 90010. If anyone wishes to make an online donation, they may do so at www.missionsla.org/donate-today and specify Sri Lanka Disaster in the special instructions box. 100% of the collection will go towards those affected by this horrible disaster. For any questions or concerns, please contact the MISSION OFFICE at (213) 637-7223 or missionoffice@la-archdiocese.org.

En solidaridad con nuestros hermanos y hermanas sufrientes en Sri Lanka, el Arzobispo Gómez ha pedido a todas las parroquias que consideren realizar una colecta especial (no obligatoria) durante el fin de semana del 18 al 19 de mayo de 2019. Favor de mantener a estas comunidades en sus oraciones.
