Dear Grandma,

This Sunday is the Feast of the Holy Trinity. Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter have been left behind, and recently, Pentecost, the third Easter, the coming of the Holy Spirit. The process of the revelation of God, which has been manifested to us in Jesus, has been completed. Through His words, His actions and His lifestyle, He has revealed the Father to us. When He disappears from this world, He sends us His Holy Spirit to continue encouraging our hearts with the same fire that His presence left us. All three have saved us: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This feast is not to enter into theological discussions, but to celebrate that God is LOVE and not something else. Father, Son and Holy Spirit have a relationship of love between them. And in the middle of that embrace They want all of us. This is reaffirmed in the Gospel of John: "God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son." It means, He gave himself up. He gave Himself totally for us. Without measure. Without conditions. How is it possible that there are people who still think that God is persecuting us to punish us, to put difficulties and stones on our way, to even condemn us?

We have to repeat it many times: "God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son." Let's permit that immense affection of God flood us. Will we let ourselves be saved? Have we not had enough after such a long Lent, such a difficult Easter season and such a ravaged Pentecost? The first reading says it: we are a people with a stiff neck ... and a pylon, we are not able to accept the hand that God reaches out to save us. Let's raise our eyes and we will realize that the God of love and peace is with us forever.

Estimados Feligreses,

Este domingo es la Fiesta a la Santísima Trinidad. Han quedado atrás el Adviento, la Navidad, la Cuaresma, la Semana Santa y el Tiempo de Pascua y, recientemente, Pentecostés, la tercera pascua, la venida del Espíritu Santo. Se ha culminado así el proceso de la revelación de Dios, que se nos ha manifestado en Jesús. A través de sus palabras, de sus acciones y de su estilo de vida, nos ha revelado al Padre. Y cuando él desaparece de este mundo, nos envía su Espíritu Santo para que siga alentando en nuestros corazones el mismo fuego que nos dejó su presencia. Nos han salvado los tres: el Padre, el Hijo y el Espíritu Santo. Esta fiesta no para entrar en discusiones teológicas, sino para celebrar que Dios es amor y no otra cosa. Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo son relación de amor entre ellos. Y en medio de ese abrazo quieren que estemos todos nosotros. Eso nos reafirma el Evangelio de Juan: "Tanto amó Dios al mundo que entregó a su Hijo único". Es decir, se entregó a sí mismo. Se dio totalmente por nosotros. Sin medida. Sin condiciones. ¿Cómo es posible que haya gente que todavía piense que Dios anda persiguiéndonos para castigarnos, para ponernos dificultades y piedras en el camino, para condenarnos incluso?

Hay que repetirlo muchas veces y dejar que nos inunde ese cariño inmenso de Dios ¿nos dejaremos salvar? ¿No hemos tenido ya suficiente después de tan larga cuaresma, tan difícil tiempo de Pascua y tan azotado Pentecostés? Ya lo dice la primera lectura: somos un pueblo de cerviz dura... y de pilón, no somos capaces de aceptar la mano que Dios nos tiende para salvarnos. Levantemos los ojos y nos daremos cuenta de que el Dios del amor y de la paz está con nosotros para siempre.

Father's Day Mass Request

We have started to pass our Father's Day Mass request in our Thursday and Sunday drive-thru's. You can also sign them up by visiting our parish website (saintberardcc.org) and under the donation tab, with your donation add in the comment section your Father's Day Requests and if you want him/them included in our English or Spanish masses. This mass request can be dedicated for your father and any father figure in your life.

"I am praying for George Floyd and his loved ones, and on behalf of my brother bishops, I share the outrage of the black community and those who stand with them in Minneapolis, Los Angeles, and across the country. The cruelty and violence he suffered does not reflect on the majority of good men and women in law enforcement, who carry out their duties with honor. We know that. And we trust that civil authorities will investigate his killing carefully and make sure those responsible are held accountable."

-Archbishop Jose H. Gomez
